	What is Online Prep	Online Prep is a student support model where Online students complete their first three Online courses in the normal UOPX Online format and will have a weekly, voluntary Student Engagement Session in a campus classroom before transitioning solely to the Online modality. The purpose of Online Prep is to improve retention and completion rates, and improve learning outcomes for our students. Online Prep will allow us to differentiate how we prepare our students to be more successful online. The student support model provides students an opportunity to interact face to face with faculty and other students to build relationships, a sense of community, and develop a support network. Attending the weekly student engagement session at the campus, creates awareness and connects students with local campus resources and how those resources can be used to achieve success throughout their program.
	Who qualifies	The Online Prep Student Support model is designed for v26 curriculum, aligns with our new service model, and our faculty model. Participation in Online Prep should be discussed with all potential students interested in a qualifying program and near one of our pilot locations.

	Features and Benefits of Online Prep	We understand that every student is different and will need varying degrees of guidance and support throughout their program. The Online Prep Student Support model helps us place more emphasis on personalized learning and support for the student during the first 3 courses. By completing the Online Prep pilot, students are prepared to take their newly acquired skills and knowledge to the Online classroom. Features <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Full-time faculty guidance through first 3 courses - same faculty member will teach online course and facilitate face-to-face sessions • High-touch personalized learning and support • Practical experience leveraging university tools and campus resources

- Face to face interactions that leverage UOPX National footprint (75% of students live within 30 miles of a campus)

Learning Pathway

Students participating in Online Prep will be placed on the standard learning pathway. If the results of the Pathway Diagnostic indicate the student is ready for the accelerated pathway, then they can still opt to participate in the Online Prep pilot to take advantage of the high-touch personalized learning and support. The coursework is the same for the standard and accelerated learning pathways, the difference is the pace. The initial two Online Prep courses will last seven weeks in the standard track as opposed to five in the accelerated track.

	Next Steps	The Online Prep Student Support model is a pilot program and is likely to evolve as we receive student, faculty, and staff feedback. Several success measures are being put into place to evaluate the Online Prep model and student retention. As the university representative with the student, you have a unique opportunity to champion Online Prep and contribute to the long-term success of the program. Your feedback and flexibility during implementation is greatly appreciated. Virtual Instructor-Led Session Attend the live training session to learn how to speak about the Online Prep opportunity, discuss student experience benefits, and participate in a live question and answer session. courses as an online student. That means that you'll have access to your instructor in a classroom setting while you learn to navigate the online environment."

PS expresses concerns about being able to contact instructor or get feedback:

"You mentioned that you are concerned about accessing your faculty member. With the online prep experience, you would have face-to-face access to your instructor and be able to ask questions, in real time, even as an online student. This would allow you to ask questions as they arise and be able to adjust immediately."

PS mentions they are not working:

"You shared with me that you are not working right now and you are looking for a job. Our students are working adults and our faculty work in the fields in which they teach. Online-Prep could benefit you because you could come to campus and network with people in your area, which may help you with your job search."

PS mentions they have limited computer skills or exposure to specific programs, such as MS Word or PowerPoint:

"You said that you are not very familiar with the programs we use in our course work each week. The Online-Prep structure allows your instructor to spend additional time with you as needed. That means that you could spend some time after your session each week getting help until you feel more comfortable using those programs."

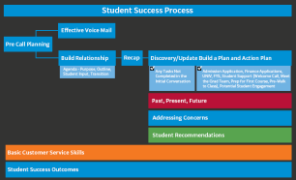

PS mentions they don't have a strong support system encouraging them to go to school:

"I know you said you are the first in your family to go to college, and that you haven't received a lot of guidance regarding being a student. Online-Prep provides access to an instructor who will help ease your transition into college by providing and teaching you resources that will benefit you long-term and help foster success until graduation."

Conversation Examples

Enrollment:

- First conversation –
 - You mentioned that you were a bit nervous about attending 100% Online (link). We actually have a program that could help with that, it's called Online Prep. (Feature) Online Prep could really help you feel more comfortable (Bridge) as it provides a forum for meeting face-to-face with your instructor and classmates, while still participating in the Online class format, and helps transition to 100% online. (Benefit)
 - You shared that you don't have a lot of support for your decision to go to school (link). The Online Prep program encourages stronger relationships with both your peers and your instructor (feature). This can help build a support structure (bridge) as many of the relationships you forge in your first few classes will continue throughout your career here as a student.
 - I know that you've only experienced classroom education in the past (link). Online Prep is a blended model that merges online coursework with in-person sessions (feature). This could would be perfect for you because (bridge) there would be a familiar element before you transition to completely online courses.

- Follow up call –
 - Thanks for sharing your concerns about working with a Learning Team (link). The Online Prep program will allow you to meet your LT members face-to-face. (feature) This can help you feel more comfortable with your classmates (bridge), as you'll have the chance to spend time working together, one on one. (benefit)
- Walk to Class –
 - You asked about ways to communicate with your instructor (link). With the Online Prep program, you will be connecting face-to-face with your instructor (feature). This can both help you feel more comfortable (bridge) as you'll have the opportunity to ask questions and reassure yourself that everything you submit online is reaching your instructor (benefit).
- Application call (this is often when technology challenges will come up) –
 - You mentioned that may need access to a printer or computer lab (link). Participating in the Online Prep program will allow you to become more familiar with your local campus (feature). This can be reassuring (bridge), as you'll know exactly where to go and what support is available (benefit).

Student Services: [Need content/example verbiage]

- Welcome call
 - They should definitely discuss it here, especially as it relates to the student's actual schedule – which classes will be part of Online Prep, when the schedule transitions to 100% Online, the details of how participation/attendance works in the Online Prep classes.
- SVR call
 - They'll be touching base throughout the first few courses, so as part of the existing check in process they should include the Online Prep model – what's the student's experience with it been like so far, etc.

Finance: [Need content/example verbiage]

- Welcome call
 - The FC should go over the details of the incentive on the Welcome

call, and then reiterate the impact of the incentive anytime they're discussing FA status, certification, etc, during the Online Prep period.

- SVR call
- Financial Aid Status
